Dear Ms Connors,

Enclosed is the obituary of my wife who attended North Sydney Girls' High School as Shirley Andrew in the years of the Second World War. During that time I believe the school was evacuated briefly to Katoomba.

The obituary was written by our daughter, Dr Stephanie Tanner, for the autumn issue of the Camberwell Quarterly.

Shirley spent most of her life in England, but at heart she was ever Australian. Her schooldays were happy and she was forever loyal to her school.

It occurred to me that you may see fit to remember her in some way as an old girl who had a long, personally happy and professionally very distinguished professional career.

Yours sincerely,
